

THE ROSWELL DAILY RECORD.

VOLUME 3

ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 7, 1905.

NUMBER 162

Old Settlers Today Observe That the Pecos Valley Has Changed Somewhat Since They Came

FIND OIL AT LAKEWOOD

FLOW ESTIMATED AT TWENTY BARRELS PER DAY.

IT IS PARAFFIN OIL

The Flow is Held Down by A Water-spout of Seven Thousand Gallons and the Exact Amount of Oil Can Only be Guessed About.—Discovered in the Town Well.

All Lakewood and surrounding country was set agog last night by the discovery of oil in the town well that is being drilled there to secure water for the town's use. The oil comes up with the immense flow of water and it is hard to tell just how much of the valuable fluid exists, but expert drillers estimate that the flow even though it is held down by a seven thousand gallon flow of water, amounts to between fifteen and twenty barrels per day. That is considered to be in paying quantities, even though a stronger flow is not discovered.

The well is down about a thousand feet and it quite likely that it will drop lower.

The oil is of fine quality and is what the drillers call paraffin oil. The people of Lakewood are delighted with their discovery and the whole valley rejoices with them and wish with them for the greatest of results.

THE G. A. R. PARADE.

The Main Event of the Grand Army Encampment at Denver.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 6.—The main event of the Grand Army Encampment, speaking from the viewpoint of the rank and file, was the grand parade which occurred today. Many who marched two miles today were exhausted when the end was reached, and many others, weakened by age, fell out of the line long before the journey was completed. The ovation given the marchers was unstinted. The streets were packed with people and the windows and roofs along the line of march swarmed with humanity. The cheering was continuous, and the grizzled old warriors were kept busy bowing acknowledgments and raising their hats in salute. Light showers had fallen during the night, but the weather cleared this morning, and the annual G. A. R. parade has never taken place under more favorable auspices. Col. George E. Randolph was grand marshal.

PECOS BRIDGE DAMAGED.

Morning Train Held Here Several Hours by Settling of the Bed Caused by the Rains.

The morning train, north bound, left Roswell on time this morning, but returned at 12:30, being unable to pass over the Pecos bridge. The approach on the opposite side of the bridge was rendered useless during the night by settling until the ties and rails were knocked out of place. The heavy trains had softened the road bed and when heavy trains passed over last night, the track was ruined. Workmen were engaged in repairing the damage and the expectation of the officials is to get the afternoon train out of here at 2:30 or 3 o'clock this afternoon.

BIG SUIT FOR RENT.

S. E. Rush Sues Stuart & Carberry, of Artesia, for Rent on a Lease For Three Years.

Suit was filed in district court Tuesday by Judge W. W. Gatewood, attorney for Sterling E. Rush against Frank D. Stuart and Thomas S. Carberry, of Artesia, in which plaintiff asks for judgment for the sum of $6,000, claimed as rent of a large artificial stone building in Artesia, for a period of three years.

Plaintiff alleges that he bought the building of Wm. E. Baskin, assuming a lease that had been granted Stuart & Carberry for three years at $230 per month, for the purpose of running a saloon, restaurant and rooming house. It is claimed further that while plaintiff was in Louisiana, in quarantine, defendants stealthily moved their saloon fixtures, worth probably a couple of thousand dollars, to another building, thereby attempting to destroy plaintiff's lien upon them for the rent. The petition asks not only for judgment for the amount of the lease, but also for an injunction to prevent the further removal of defendant's property.

Woman's Relief Corps Meets.

Denver, Col. Sept. 7.—The Twenty-third National Convention of the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic was called to order at the Methodist Episcopal church this morning. The attendance was very large and addresses were delivered by several prominent members of the organization.

The national headquarters of the organization have been established at the Brown Palace Hotel and there open house is kept for the delegates and their friends as well as for the sons and daughters of Veterans. There will be a grand formal reception and several smaller entertainments for the visiting delegates and several excursions to points of interest in the vicinity are also planned.

National Farmers' Union Planned.

Texarkana, Tex. Sept. 7.—The formation of a National Farmers' Union which is to embrace farmers in all parts of the south and west in the object of the meeting of Southern and Western farmers, which met here this morning in accordance with a call sent out by the Texas Farmers' Union. The organization has a total membership of about 275,000 scattered all through Texas and several other Southern and Western States. It is expected that the formation of a national organization with a greatly increased membership will greatly enhance the power of the union and will enable it to bring about many important reforms in political matters, transportation facilities, etc., which it has not been able to accomplish so far. No actual test of this power will be made, however, until the next presidential campaign. The several state organizations belonging to the national organization will devote their attention to such matters as may be deemed of importance and interest to their respective memberships.

Synod of Church of England.

Quebec, Sept. 6.—The fourth triennial session of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada began here today, with every part of the Dominion represented by delegates. The present session is of considerable importance, as many a weighty question will come up for consideration. The Synod will remain in session for several weeks. Among the propositions to be considered is one to discharge the committee appointed to prepare an appendix to the Book of Common Prayer and to appoint a new committee to prepare and publish a Canadian edition of the prayer book.

Notice to Tomato Growers.

All parties who have contracts with the Roswell Canning Factory for tomatoes will please call at the factory and make arrangements with the superintendent, Mr. Frank Rheinbolt, for delivery of same.

All truck growers or farmers who have no contracts but have tomatoes for sale will also kindly call on Mr. Rheinbolt in regard to same. 59tf.

Ed Gross Still in Business.

A report is out that Ed Gross has quit the cement sidewalk business. It is a mistake. He is still the best finisher in Roswell and uses only pulverized rock for foundations. 61t3*

The violin solo to be played by Prof. Axelson Friday night will alone be well worth the price of admission. Mr. Axelson possesses rare abilities as a violinist. You cannot afford to miss hearing him.

DAY OF OLD SETTLERS

CROWD GOES TO SOUTH SPRING FOR PICNIC.

ABOUT 300 ON GROUND

Special Train Takes Great Many From Roswell and Many Go in Buggies. Barbecue Dinner, With Speeches and Music Made the Features of a Day Full of Pleasures to Old Timers.

This was the day of the old settler. He had everything his way. He went out to South Spring and there met with all the other old timers, and their children, and had many hours of unalloyed pleasure, mingling with those who came to this country at least twenty years ago.

The day was cool and pleasant. Cloudy part of the time, the sunshine was welcome when the sun broke through the changeable weather reminding all of the checker board career they have had in settling the desert.

The special train of three cattle cars and one combination coach for the ladies and children, left here promptly at 9:30, and the cars were comfortably filled. All were expecting a jolly good time, and no doubt had it, for the committee had prepared a splendid barbecue dinner and a good program of speeches and music.

A report from the picnic grounds at 2 o'clock this afternoon states that about 300 people are present.

A write-up of the picnic will be given tomorrow by the Record's editor who is spending the day with the old settlers.

A MIDDNIGHT MARRIAGE.

A Late Train Caused a Rare Inconvenience for Dr. Gable and His Bride.—Married Nevertheless.

Arriving at 11:20, instead of 3:50, or eight hours behind time, the train yesterday caused a world of worry and trouble to Dr. J. Oglesby Gable and his bride, Miss C. Grace Hanna, who came in from Peoria, Illinois, and met him here for their marriage. But, like in the story books, it came out all right in the end and it is the hope of their many friends that they will "live happy ever afterwards."

It was close to midnight when Dr. Gable and Miss Hanna, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Swartz and Dr. Galloway, went to the home of Elder C. C. Hill and were quietly united in marriage. There was no feast following the ceremony. The guests had partaken of the wedding supper at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, although the bride's chair was vacant, and after the ceremony the guests repaired to their respective homes. The wedding was nicely carried out, Elder Hill conducting a ceremony beautiful in its impressiveness and the hour adding to the solemnity of the occasion. The couple will be at home to their friends at 208 Kentucky Avenue.

NO NEWS FROM KING BOY

Details Concerning his Death are Not Expected for Two Weeks.—Something Concerning the Boy.

No news has come concerning the death of Elbert J. King, the boy who, as mentioned yesterday, was killed by falling from a trestle at Butte, Mont. The details will not be received for a couple of weeks, as the relatives will have to write for them it is supposed.

Elbert King would have been 22 years old in December. He left here two years ago this summer, having come here four years before that time with his parents from Marion county Missouri. His father S. M. King lives 1 1/2 miles northwest of town. His mother died three years ago.

Since leaving Roswell the boy has been in Gilroy, California most of the time. He went to Butte only about a month ago and it is supposed he has been working as a painter, as he had done much of that kind of work.

Beside his father, Elbert King leaves a sister, Mrs. C. R. Echols, of Artesia and two brothers, Dr. A. M. King, of Lake Arthur and Ernest King of Hagerman. He was a member of the Baptist church and a young man of good habits.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Miss Hedgecoxe entertained the Chafing Dish Club yesterday afternoon her guests being the members of the club and Miss Christine Littlefield. The young ladies brought their fancy work and spent a most pleasant afternoon doing needlework. Miss Christine Littlefield added much to the pleasure of the afternoon with several selections on the piano. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a most delightful luncheon, as follows, creamed chicken on the chafing dish, potato chips, bread and butter sandwiches, tomatoes with mayonnaise dressing, olives, ice cream in cantaloupes, cake.

Draper's First Paper.

The Record is in receipt of a copy of the Winfield, Kansas Daily Free Press, the paper recently purchased by Wm. R. Draper, of the DeFreest Draper Land Company. It is one of the first paper issued under the new management and is a publication of which Mr. Draper can be pardonably proud. It is a good looking paper, from both a news and business standpoint.

This little paragraph of five or six lines is calculated by the versatile printer to exactly fill out the column, thereby enabling him to get out the Record in time for early afternoon reading.

JAPANESE ARE ANGRY

MOB BURNS HOME OF MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS.

SERIOUS RIOTING ALSO

The Japanese are not Submitting to the Peace Terms as Quietly as was Expected of Them.—Russians Celebrate the Forming of Peace Terms. More Trouble in Caucasasia.

Tokio, Sept. 5.—(Delayed in transmission) Serious rioting followed an attack today on the official of Kohumin Shinbun. An organized mob attacked and burned the official residence of Minister of Home Affairs, which stood between Nobles Club and the Imperial Hotel and faced Hibaya Park, which was the storm center throughout the day. Threatening demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood of the official homes of Premier Katsura and Baron Komuram, the foreign Minister who is in the United States, but the police succeeded in preventing any injury to the occupants, or damage to the house. The situation tonight is threatening. Turbulent crowds fill the streets. It is feared much damage to property is possible under the cover of darkness. The streets in the neighborhood of Kokumin Shinbun are closed and 200 police form a cordon around the office.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 7.—A thanksgiving service, commemorative of the conclusion of peace, was celebrated at Peterhof this afternoon in the presence of Emperor Nicholas and the state dignitaries.

Tiflis, Caucasasia, Sept. 7.—All the naphtha works at Baku have been destroyed and all factories and other works closed. Military authorities are hastening measures to cope with the desperate situation at Baku. Artillery has been dispatched by special trains. The Tartar movement in northern Caucasasia is said to be directed principally against the Government.

TO REGULATE RAILROAD RATES

Texas Senator says That He Believes Something Will be Done by the Next Congress.

New York, Sept. 7.—Senator Chas. A. Culberson, of Texas, who is now in this city, is quoted by the Times this morning as having expressed the belief that legislation on government regulation of railroad rates will be enacted at the next session of Congress. Although the house may act quickly he says, the Senate will be deliberate and steady and act carefully. "I think the Democrats of the Senate will co-operate with the Republicans who stand by the President in his effort to secure this legislation he continued, "the House passed such a bill last session but the Senate, owing to a delay in the committee on interstate commerce, was unable to do anything. Those who favored delay last session plainly stated that they would agree to take the subject under consideration this winter, so it may be generally anticipated that something will be done."

BIG EXCURSION THIS TIME.

Tallmadge has a Special Train of Five Pullman Coaches, Which Makes the Finest Train Ever.

The excursion business in the Pecos Valley is growing in importance, instead of declining, as some of the calamity howlers predicted. The excursions are getting larger and larger as the season advances. The delayed train last night arriving at 11:20 brought in the "Texas" car, which is operated by the Southwestern Land Company, and their officers reported that they had forty land buyers aboard.

The Tallmadge excursion is to be the finest in point of appearance at least, that has come to the valley in many months. A message was received here this morning stating that the Tallmadge people would come in on the time of the regular train in a special train of five passenger coaches, all Pullman sleepers. There are to be between 150 and 165 people on this train. They will take a drive out of Roswell this afternoon. The regular train, with smaller excursion parties, will come later, according to the report this morning.

This splendid excursion of the Tallmadge people puts to flight the oft-denied report that they were about to quit the Valley. The message, bringing the news about the early coming of the Tallmadge special, was sent by J. H. McKinstry, who is with the train this trip.

The regular train from the North is reported to be five hours late.

FINE EXHIBIT OF PRODUCTS.

Elegant Collection of the Pecos Valley's Best at the Office of Turner & Malone.

About the finest collection of fruits, vegetables, grains and other farm products the Record reporter has seen this season is at the office of Turner & Malone, over the First National Bank, where he called this morning. There are liberal samples of every product in great variety and the specimens are the best that can be secured. The main products on exhibition are Indian corn, Kaffir corn, milo maize, sweet corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, alfalfa, apples in great variety, pears, cucumbers, beets, squash, pumpkins, tomatoes, peppers, beans, etc. etc. The exhibit is worth going to see, and as Messrs Turner & Malone collected it for the people to see, they will be glad to have the people of Roswell, as well as visitors in the city, call and take a look, that they might see what the Pecos Valley can grow.

ARTESIA COMING TO THE FRONT

Town Board Grants a Franchise for Ice and Electric Light Plant.

The Town board of Artesia Tuesday granted a franchise to Huskey & Bond, of Beaumont, Texas for an ice plant and an electric light plant for their town. According to the agreement in the franchise, the two plants are to be finished in six months. The ice plant is to have a capacity of 20 tons and the electric light plant is to cost $25,000.

Methodists have a Good Time.

There were about 150 present at the social given last night by the members of the Southern Methodist church at their church building. All present had a good, social time and enjoyed the nice refreshments that were served. Miss Nina Rabb sang very sweetly for the crowd. The Epworth League of the same church was given a social Monday evening at the home of C. B. Dilley. About thirty were present on that evening and it was a thoroughly enjoyable affair.

Walter Paylor Painfully Burned.

In the absence of his wife, Walter Paylor attempted to cook some French fried potatoes last night and upset a vessel full of boiling lard on his left hand, burning it until the skin slipped in several places. This should be a warning to young husbands.

Harry Jaffa returned last night from a month's trip to New York and the eastern markets where he has been buying for the Jaffa, Prager store.
